

March 8, International Women's Day celebrated in Norway by EPRP members and Supporters joined the demonstration in celebrating this day. They distributed leaflets in which they described the situation of Ethiopian women and how they and their children have suffered at the hands of the present brutal regime. Finally, they called on the world to remember and honor their sisters for the sacrifices they have made in our organization's endless struggle against suppression.

Slogans:

- 1) Respect for Women's Right
- 2) EPRP stands with women, for women's rights, against oppression
- 3) Unconditional Release of Political Prisoners in Ethiopia
- 4) Unconditional Release of Aberash Berta and Birtukan Mideksa
- 5) EPRP will continue to support the women struggle.

Unity based on equality Shall Prevail !!

EPRP Norway Section

