SOCEPP SUPPORTS THE DEMONSTRATIONS AGAINST MELES ZENAWI IN LONDON

SOCEPP expresses its solidarity with all people demonstrating against the presence of Meles Zenawi for the G20 meeting in London. Meles Zenawi heads one of the most repressive and demagogic regimes in Africa. Meles cannot represent the interest of the peoples of Africa as he has been condemned as one of the gross human rights violators in the continent.

The Meles regime is known for holding 35,000 political prisoners in secret prisons and camps all over Ethiopia.

Meles Zenawi has committed war crimes in Somalia and against the people in the Ogaden.

Meles Zenawi is responsible for the massacres of the Anuaks in Gambella.

Meles Zenawi, along with his wife, family and cronies, has embezzled millions of dollars from Ethiopia and presides over one of the most corrupt regimes in Africa.

Meles Zenawi is in illegally in power after massacring more than 200 people in Addis Ababa in June 2005 and cancelling by force the general election that he lost.

Meles Zenawi is one of the predators of the free press and he practices discriminatory ethnic politics.

The regime of Meles Zenawi has disappeared dozens of political prisoners since 1991.

PROTEST AGAINST THE PRESENCE OF MELES ZENAWI IN LONDON. THE TYRANT SHOULD BE TRIED FOR HIS WAR CRIMES AND MASSACRES.
